Notice.

SEALED PROPOSALS in duplicate will be received at the Office of the A. C. S. at Fort Vancouver, W. T., until 12 o'clock M., Thursday, May 24th, 1866, for the furnishing of FRESH BEEF to the troops and employees at that Post the fiscal year commencing July 1st 1866 and ending June 30th, 1867.
Said Fresh Beef to be of good and marketable quality and in equal proportion of fore and hind quarter meat, (necks shanks and kidney tallow to be excluded), and to be delivered on such days and in such quantities as the Commanding Officer of that Post may designate. The necks of the cattle slaughtered shall be cut off at the fourth vertebral joint and the breasts trimmed down; the shanks of the fore quarters shall be cut off from three to four inches above the knee joint, and of hind quarters from six to eight inches above the gambrel or hock joint.
Each bid to be accompanied by a bond (with at least two sureties) in the sum of two thousand dollars for the faithful performance of the proposals contained in the bid in case the bid is accepted.
All bids must state the price per pound in U. S. coin, but payment will be made in such funds as may be on hand on the day of payment for that purpose at coin rates.
The undersigned reserves to himself the right to reject any or all bids that he may deem unreasonable.
Bidders are invited to be present when the bids are opened.
Proposals to be addressed to the undersigned and endorsed thus: "Proposals for Fresh Beef."

"Political Vagrants."

The advocate of repudiation, and of a North western Confederacy, who boasts himself as the "responsible" editor of the Oregon Herald—(we wonder whether he is more "responsible" now, than when holding an office under Buchanan in Minnesota,) is fired with indignation (an indignation which he pretends is virtuous, but which, be cause he says the "Black Republican party" have "vagabond lecturers" and speakers engaged in their cause Postal Agent Vinton and Col Hawkins are the persons whom this outcast from loyal, decent society in Illinois, is traducing as "political vagrants" Now it will readily occur to fair-minded people, that it is hardly becoming in Democrats to allude in this manner to their political opponents Pray tell us, you who talk so glibly about "political vagrants,"—who stood sponsors to your party in its last national campaign, appointed its leaders, constructed its platform and gave direction to its policy? Political vagrants in Canada Nor were these god fathers of your party political vagrants merely They were rebels of the vilest character, and under their leadership you contended and lost. William H Seward, a man whom you have suddenly fallen in love with, says the rebel vagrant George N. Sanders, assisted by the other rebel vagrants and assassins, Beverly Tucker and C. C. Clay, framed the Chicago platform of 1864, and that accordingly, it was framed to meet the views and wishes of the Southern rebels Who is the Democratic Duke Gwin? A political vagrant. Who is the late Democratic Vice President, John C. Breckinridge? A political vagrant Who is the Democratic "Colonel" John Lane, the doughty and the renowned? A political vagrant. Who are the great numbers of the guerrillas and bushwhackers from Missouri by whom the Democracy of Oregon have been so strongly reinforced within a year that they expect to carry the State? Political vagrants And lastly, who is M. H. Abbott, of the Herald, who vilifies loyal men wherever he finds them? A political vagrant just from Illinois, a State which no longer had any need or employment for such disloyal characters as he. A man who made so infamous a record during the rebellion as to compel him to emigrate from his old haunts as soon as the war was over and the cause which he had served to the utmost of his ability, annihilated and sunk forever; and who thereupon came out to Oregon to take a part in politics where he is less notoriously known, is hardly the person to talk about political vagrants. "Political vagrants!" We thank thee, Copperhead, for teaching us this word!

'TWAS SOME OTHER MAN.—The Herald man insists that he never "acted as a guerrilla"—that he "lived in Illinois during the entire period of the war," except when he went to St. Louis, and then he traveled on a pass from Gov. Yates, but omits to mention the time when he was found in St. Louis by the Provost Marshal without a pass and was taken charge of by that functionary, but finally given a pass and discharged as a comparatively harmless, though blatant secessionist The guerrilla story which he takes so much pleasure in demolishing, is furnished to him by Seigner Timon Von Buck Embree, (no extra charge for printing this knight's name in full) of Lafayette. Timon Von Buck attributes it to Col. Hawkins, but this is evidently a crafty, though weak invention for the purpose of seeing the name of the "great unknown" of Lafayette in print One would as soon think of accusing his grandmother of being a guerrilla as the villain editor of that truly Democratic and far-famed journal, the Polk County Democrat. He had a wholesome aversion to villainous saltpetre; but if the paper which he once published is a good witness, he could praise treason and guerrillaism, while enjoying the protection of the flag, with the worst of them.

Mr. Timon Von Buck, we beg your pardon for discrediting a story vouched for by a name so excellent and exceeding great—but you are mistaken in your man. The editor of the Herald was not a guerrilla He only stayed at home in Pike county, Illinois, and wrote and talked and agonized and prayed and cursed for the success of the Southern Confederacy, and the defeat of Lincoln and his "hirelings"

CAN O'MEARA VOTE?—The election laws of this State provide that before voting, any person may be required, upon challenge, to swear that he will "support the Constitution and laws of the United States, the Constitution and laws of the State of Oregon,' etc Such an oath is also required from persons drawing money from the State Treasury The little traitor, Jim. O'Meara refused, not long ago to draw money due him from the State Treasury because, as he alleged TO TAKE SUCH AN OATH WOULD BE PERJURY In his speech in this city, on the 16th, he declared that it was "unconstitutional" to require such an oath, and that he "NEVER WOULD TAKE IT" If challenged, he must eat his words, take the oath of allegiance, AND THUS COMMIT PERJURY, or he cannot vote After all his treasonable conduct and sayings, he ought not to be permitted to vote without swearing allegiance to the Government

The Idaho World characterizes the Vigilance Committee of its Territory as an instrument of destruction for the Democratic party Now we don't apologize for Viligance Committees, but if they are so inimical to the Democracy as the World intimates, they are not altogether unproductive of good. The same objection which the Idaho paper urges against them may also be urged with equal force against the penitentiary Penitentiaries and Vigilance Committees are equal foes to the Democracy Both greatly diminish the Democratic vote

THE ORR INDIANA PRISONERS A Washington dispatch of April 14th to the Associated Press says "The Supreme Court of the United States having decided the Indiana Military Commission for the trial of civilians to be illegal, and the persons convicted having in consequence been discharged, there is no doubt that steps will soon be taken to procure the release of Dr Mudd Arnold, O'Laughlin and Spangler convicted of conspiracy against the life of President Lincoln The friends of these parties claim the benefit of that decision, and will take action accordingly

Fortunately four of the murderers of President Lincoln are beyond the reach of the process of law that would set them at large without punishment

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN]

DATES TO MAY 20.

Behavior of the Freedmen—Measures against offending Officers—Proclamation of the Governor of Florida.

WASHINGTON May 19—Reports received by General Howard in all parts of the South, represent that not withstanding many impediments the freedmen are getting on well and are conducting themselves in a manner to set the rest of the country and even their bitterest opponents

Orders have been issued for the organization of the militia in the Southern States [illegible] and Alabama under the

Several officers of the Freedmen Bureau have been suspended from duty by the President but when practicable some officer in each of the Southern States is designated by the department commander to investigate the charges against them in order to bring about a hearing as speedily as possible The suggestion was adopted both respect to Mississippi and in order that no case should be overlooked it was directed in Alabama until the organization of the militia

Gen Wagner, of Florida has issued a proclamation announcing the closer of military rule in that state, with the exception of military courts for a few days until prompt civil tribunals shall be established in every county Gen Wagner will remain in that state and continue in the discharge of such duties as may be assigned him by the President

Minister to Mexico—A forthcoming Proclamation.

WASHINGTON, May 21 Lewis D Campbell recently confirmed Minister to the Republic of Mexico, has arrived from that country to confer with the Secretary of State

A rumor is current that Gen B Ward will sign

The President is preparing a proclamation to explain that his recent proclamation abrogated martial law and that this declaration is necessary to disabuse the public mind that martial law is in force, and the coming trial of Jeff Davis will present the aspect not of a military Congressional.

WASHINGTON May 19—Senate not in session In the House the Speaker laid before a message of the President from them, inquiring what clerks of different departments are receiving answers from all except the War and Treasury Departments It appears that of the 949 male clerks in all other Departments 250 served in the Union army and 6 in the navy

The House bill equalizing bounties does not include colored soldiers

It is reported on good authority that the Judiciary Committee have come to the conclusion that the evidence produced before them does not warrant the charge that Jeff Davis is guilty of complicity in the assassination of Mr Lincoln

Cowan and Doolittle on National Affairs.

PHILADELPHIA May 19.—The Academy of Music was crowded to-night by an enthusiastic audience to hear Senators Doolittle and Cowan on national issues Doolittle declares that the man who denies the Union of the States un ler the constitution, is himself a disunionist. He referred to the many calumnies that had been rained against the personal character of the President, and expressed the firm belief that no man living was more assiduously and conscientiously engaged in the discharge of his duty to his country than Andrew Johnson He illustrated the policy of President Lincoln, to show the policy of President Johnson was not a new one, but that it was in obedience to the wishes of the Union party, instead of the President pursuing false to the men who were leading the Union party and were preventing its grand objects and intentions—the restoration of the Union and enforcement of the laws Cowan followed in an argument in defense of sustaining Iowa by virtue of which the rebellion had been crushed The President's plan of reconstruction rested alone upon the authority of the Constitution and the law of the land If the Southern people had not forgotten their allegiance to the Constitution, there would have been no rebellion. He was opposed to any amendment to the Constitution at present.

The Immigration.

NEW YORK May 19—During the months ending April 30th 48,722 immigrants arrived, and since that date 12, 901 making a total of 60,623. From this time forward the increased immigration of the year may be looked for and the total is already estimated at 300 000 Whether the influence of the cholera will exert a shocking or a retarding effect on immigration, is not taken into account

The Mexican Club of New York.

NEW YORK, May 19 The Mexican Club of this city has passed a series of resolutions denouncing Santa Anna as an enemy to liberty and entirely unworthy the confidence or sympathy of the liberal cause. The club charges him with being an accomplice of Napoleon and blaspheming under the Health of Jeff Davis.

The Times' Fortress Monroe correspondent expresses surprise at the late reports of Jeff Davis' health failing and intimates that his condition is as good as ever, and he is being treated very kindly, and even luxuriously.

Election of an Episcopal Bishop.

NEW YORK May 19.—The steamer Arizona, with San Francisco dates of the 30th, has arrived.

NEW ORLEANS May 19.—The Episcopal Convention has elected Mr Waldor of Virginia Bishop of the diocese of Louisiana

The Douglas Monument—Chicago Wheat Market—Lake Superior Gold and Silver.

CHICAGO, May 20.—The corner stone of the Douglas Monument in this city, is to be laid on the 25th of June with public ceremonies and an address by Governor Oglesby

The wheat market of this city, has shown remarkable fluctuations since May 1st, prices advancing to nineteen and twenty cents on all grades, culminating on the 9th instant, since when, the advance had been almost entirely lost Numerous small speculators are bankrupt, and powerful cliques lost considerable money

Professor Cheso, of Brown's University, Providence, Rhode Island, reports that the most favorable specimens of gold and silver bearing quartz from Vermilion gold field, Lake Superior, do not produce enough to pay one-fourth the cost of working them

The Spanish-Peruvian War.

NEW YORK May 20.—The Secretary of foreign affairs of Peru publishes a circular setting forth motives of the Spaniards in commencing war against the South American republics, and claiming that Peru, in right and justice, is but defending herself against aggression

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH.

SAN FRANCISCO May 21.—The number of deaths in this city last week numbered 40

John H Mills and John O Grodey, the former of whom plead guilty, and the latter of whom was convicted of the robbery of the Rose House safe, were sentenced this morning to seven years service in the State prison.

A child belonging to Mr Jane Strode, of Dupont street, was found dead in the bed early this morning. Dr Finnegan was called, who refused to have anything to do with it and the Coroner was notified and will investigate the cause of its death.

The wife of Samuel T. Pegan fell from the Union bleaching ground a bluff near Fort Point about 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon and was instantly killed It came that in company with several friends, the party had amused themselves by walking upon the flume which is elevated at one point a distance of about thirty feet She was returning on her perilous journey, when her dress caught in one of the cross beams and fell on the rocks below, striking upon her head, the blow producing instant death

The steamer Colfornia arrived at an early hour this morning from Victoria

About 2 o clock last night a fire occurred on Chestnut street near Powell

By the arrival of the brig Carl Ludwig we have Hong kong dates to March 16th Sir Richard Graves McDonnell, the new English Governor of Hong Kong was inaugurated March 11th, with great ceremony The French corvette ship Henry Rong had been seized by the emigrants on board A steamer went in search and found her ashore a short distance down the west coast and brought her back to Hong Kong. The steamer found was shocking The vessel was covered with blood and the dead bodies of Chinamen The Captain died in Macao The ship is the subject of a quibble between the French Consul and the officers of the ship by which she was rescued, and the Marshal of the Vice Admiralty Court Another cooly mutiny is reported—that of four fits Almatia engaged in the Nacao trade It is said 130 Chinese were killed

The gunboat Aperture had been distinguishing herself by making extensive captures of Chinese pirates having taken 16 besides villages

The Kiandi Victorian is steadily increasing although the insurgents slaughter hundreds of soldiers and the Imperial General after decoying them into an ambuscade

Monetary and Mining Stocks.

A private telegram, dated New York May 19th says the ship meet of gold this week reached nine millions chiefly supplied by Government at 140 They are still selling at the same price

We have no later gold quotations to-day The brokers quote legal tenders at 74½, buying and 74¾ selling.

The mining share market is depressed, the wherefore is strange for no outsider to determine Publishers and printers accounts state the yield of bullion in Nevada is quite as large as usual and with an abundance of capital available at low rates of interest There would seem to be a screw loose somewhere Belcher sold 830 Uphir $27 ½ Ophir $22 ½ Crown Point $2 50 Crown Point $17 Overman $11 Bullion $10 and Imperial $6

THE APPROACHING STATE FAIR.—The time when the annual State Fair which is to be held in the city of Salem by the Society now takes on the 17th, 18th, 19th and 20th of October next. The grounds of the Society will be put in complete order and all the industries in this State are almost as much interested in the success of the Society as the people of Salem. Persons from the business portion of Portland are preparing to attend in large numbers, and the premium list comprises 60 items enclosed, provided to encourage the raising of horses with sheep, swine etc. It is well known fact that for at least two years past this county and Clackamas county have contributed nearly as much to the attractiveness of the State Fair as the host town of Oregon. Our own people are getting tired of this. They want all sections to contribute to the display. The war is over the country once more enters the peaceful pursuits and prosperous industry. It is fitting now that every department of agriculture, manufacture and all branches of industry should receive increased attention. But this will and all may keep abreast of the progress of the age and add their quota to the wealth, happiness and advancement of the people. The citizens of the whole State should feel a deep interest in the coming Annual Fair of the State Agricultural Society and act unanimously to contribute something to its attractiveness and its success. With a united and determined effort such as the people ought to make and such as we trust they will make, the Fair this year may far surpass all its predecessors, and be of inestimable advantage to all the patriotic, honorable and useful industry. We earnestly urge the farmers, Manufacturers, stock growers, Wool growers Mechanics, Fruit growers workers in the Vine and Useful Arts, and all others who believe and strive to aid in human progress and advancement to whatever affects the material welfare of the people to send a helping hand at our next State Fair.

HARD TO WORK IN EARNEST.—The New York Board of Health have pulled off their coats and fallen to work up to the removal of the nuisance evils in a real fashion as to the last great results. It requires a great deal of small stuff to be spared. The streets, under direction of the Board will have to go every day a dead cat, the dead horse, small quadrupeds, dead chickens, offensive things, and all manner of filth and foul, will be removed daily. An unfortunate boy or citizen that is caught throwing a pail of slops or ashes in the street, has been sent to jail in default of $200 or creating a perfect panic in the world below. Carts are reported in the streets hauling off nearly the whole winter, and subsequently is forced in immense heaps—in some cases the streets for whole blocks being literally covered with decomposed filth of every description. How effective system of the same kind has long been established here and nought seems the work is going on. At the meeting of the Council on Wednesday evening last, Street Commissioner was ordered to see to it that no more garbage be dumped in the river on Front and Jefferson streets and a private pool of stagnant water on Ankeny be drained from the lot opposite the Penitentiary. There is no abundance of room for improvement in this city. Mayor Hoyt was the first to inaugurate the spring work. He has been at it for a month, and citizens generally have but a small idea of what has been accomplished.

HARD CASES.—Edward Lamb, a youth not yet hardly in his teens, and Thomas Lee, a boy of rather more mature age, were yesterday brought before Recorder Hoffman, charged with stealing pigeons from a private coop in the city. Both boys are old offenders, and should be sent to the Reform School as quickly as possible. They were discharged yesterday through apparent penitence and perhaps owing to the remain of the lightness of their offence nevertheless, they are boys of that character which will contaminate all other boys with whom they come in contact, and the well disposed dungeons elements by association. The Lamb has not been seen at his home in this city until yesterday, we understand, for nearly two months. Not long since, the two boys were arrested in a room in the second story of a building on the corner of First and Taylor streets, where they were roosting. Their offence was chicken stealing, and the stolen poultry was found in the room with them. They have taken their morals and lodged at both the Union Hotel and the Farmers Hotel. When at the former, they were arrested for stealing $30 from the pocket of a guest of the hotel, lodging in an adjoining room. At the Farmers Hotel they are also suspicioned of being principals in a crime. If parents have no control over such children, they ought not to be burdened by others, and if they are too young to be sent to the Penitentiary, there should be some place which for their care at an establishment of the class of Reform Schools.

COUCH ENGINE COMPANY No 5.—The citizens of the East Ward have succeeded in organizing a fire company, and have named the same as above, out of respect for an esteemed citizen and a very worthy gentleman Captain John H. Couch. E. Holman was chosen as Foreman; Capt. P. Garry, Secretary. A committee was appointed to draft by-laws, and another committee to select a location for the company. Couch Engine Company No. 5 is started under very favorable circumstances, and if the proper spirit of encouragement is continued, will prove decidedly a success.

AT MILWAUKIE.—The candidates of both parties in Clackamas county, addressed the people at Milwaukie yesterday. The audience was large, and consisted almost solely of Union men—there being but three or four Copperheads in that town and precinct. Great enthusiasm prevailed. The canvass promises to be a warm one in Clackamas. So far the Union candidates have had a decided advantage in the debate. Clackamas will give one hundred majority for the Union ticket.

BAILEY'S COURT.—Thomas Patterson, arrested on charge of d. d., forfeited his bonds by a failure to appear before Justice Hoffman yesterday. ....Thomas Conly, for being drunk and disorderly, and resisting officer Ball, was set up for the term of fourteen days, in default of payment of fine....George Wilson, d. d., sent up for two days.

THE RIVER.—The water in the river at this city had yesterday reached to within a few inches of the high water mark of last year, but raised very slowly in the afternoon. We are informed that night before last the Columbia had reached six inches at the Dalles. The rise in the Willamette, as indicated by the gauge at the wharf of the O. S. N. Company in this city, was thirteen inches from noon of Sunday to noon yesterday.

AT PORTLAND.—Hon. W. C. Johnson, of Oregon City, arrived by the steamer Sierra Nevada last evening, from a trip to Washington City on business connected with the claims of the Hudson's Bay Company. He will proceed to Oregon City this morning. O. Collier Robbins and family were also passengers by the Sierra Nevada.

HOMESTEAD PROPERTY.—The sale of lots 2 and 3, block 45, in Couch's addition, in the city of Portland, will be by Auctioneer Richardson to-morrow. The lots are very desirable for homestead property. See advertisement.

SCHOOL MEETING.—There will be a school meeting in the East Ward of this city, this evening, to determine what the District shall purchase grounds and build a new school house in the Ward. Such other business as may be brought up in that connection will be attended to.

UNION CLUB MEETING.—The meetings of Union men, at the Club Rooms in this city are largely attended. On Saturday evening Geo Hamilton and others addressed the meeting. There will be a rousing meeting this evening.

FOUND.—A small pocket blank book, supposed to belong to Samuel Johns, picked up in the suburbs of the city, has been left at this office. The owner can have the same by calling and paying charges.

FOR SAN FRANCISCO.—The steamship Sierra Nevada of the California and Mexico steamship Company's line, will leave this port for San Francisco on to-morrow morning at 8 o'clock.

BOOK ASSESSMENTS.—An amount of stock is offered for sale for assessments due and unpaid, by the Union Gold and Silver Mining Company of Santiam. See advertisement.

LOST ON SATURDAY.—The agents of the Orizaba and Montana have private flints stating that those steam ships did not leave San Francisco until Saturday last for Portland.

News from Eastern Oregon

We condense the following news of Eastern Oregon from a letter dated Susanville, May 10th, to the Marysville Herald:

MINING ON ELK RIVER.

Miners are ground and ing their claims wherever practicable. One company on Elk Creek has obtained as high as $80 on a small space of ground which is fifty feet square. Mining in the entire Long Valley is yet in the infancy of the claims on this creek has not the slightest tattoos of it. Much

NEW RIVER.

New placer mines have been discovered on the Salmon River, in the Klamath mountains. In the short season in a number of weeks over fifty ounces of gold were taken out. Some have obtained as high as one hundred dollars to the pan. The Elk Creek quartz ledge is the richest that has been discovered in the district in which they have located claims. Specimens of which they have obtained rock which pay handsomely. A mass of silver-tinged quartz rock from that ledge is to be seen in this city with out the aid of a glass. Time only will tell the rest.

QUARTZ MINING.

Mr. M Quaid who is looking after the prospects of the Pacific has made an opening in the side of the hill on the ledge, to the depth of fifteen feet showing a well defined ledge, from three to four feet wide and has found some fine gold. It is to be seen in this rock with out the aid of a glass. Time only will tell the rest.

A NEW LEDGE.

The indefatigable quartz hunter Fred Mackel discovered another ledge in Mackville which he christened Lily Rose—it being the fifth largest ledge in the district. A small piece of the specimens, of about the size of an egg, is a flat rock and painted out in the usual way, yielded a fabulous prospect.

THE GOLDEN RULE RIDGE

This ledge is situated near the head of Deep Creek and they have a large quantity of rock on the dump from this ledge shows gold in larger particles than any I have seen in the district.

WAR ON BOARD.

Men of means and of experience in the Legislature, there is making a look at the Boise Basin—of the only practicable railroad to the Columbia river. Mr. Shannon is in Umatilla now on such a mission. With the proper trade will be brought to the Basin from that section, and the distance to Dalles City will be lessened 12 miles over any quality of road.

A PROPOSITION.

P. S.—Since the above was written Mr. Milliken who set claim to Elk Creek a few hundred yards above the town, brought in to have weighed a nugget of gold weighing at $16 per ounce, $201. Mr. Hardy on Deep Creek, obtained from the claim last week, a piece worth at the same rate, $160.

State Items.

The Willamette river is said to be higher now at the mouth of the Yamhill below the falls, than at any time last year. The Columbia is still rising and very high back water in the Willamette may be reasonably looked for.

A private dispatch from Mr. Matthew, who has been canvassing in the Southern counties of the State says: The Union ticket is O K in Southern Oregon.

The Marysville Appeal of the 12th, says: On the 1st inst. the O. S. N. Co. at Umatilla, which we mentioned as having committed suicide on Thursday last by shooting himself several times in the side and head, died from the effects of a pocket knife.

Marshal Keyser received information some time since that the Board were in possession of the ill-fated steamer Jennie Ross. Keyser, Grand Bounds and Judge Lewis started for Marysville, where they were informed that the steamer had left Colusi with a load. Mr. Keyser started in the direction of the steamer and overtook her at Knight's Landing. Mr. Keyser arrested the thief and took charge of the horse. He is now in jail awaiting examination.

Speaking of the late discovery of cinnabar on John Day river, the Westchester says: At the time of the discovery, a gentleman residing in Canyon City at once went for a number of pieces of the croppings to San Francisco for assay. The assay or a certificate attests that the ore yields at the rate of $23 22 in gold, $3 50 in silver and contains 14½ per cent. of quicksilver. The chamber is held in a frame of silicate. The proportion of quicksilver greatly increases as the lead is sunk upon, but whether this affects the proportion of the more valuable metals is not determined. Most likely such is not the case and whether the ore proves valuable to work for quicksilver or lead, it is reasonably certain that it will prove very valuable for the base metals which it contains. The facilities of abundant timber extensive water power and a mild climate attend this valuable mine in prosperity and its improvement as fast development must speedily take place.

PACIFIC COAST BUSINESS DIRECTORY.—Henry G Langley, publisher of the "San Francisco Business Directory" has issued the prospectus of a new enterprise called "The Pacific Coast Business Directory"—which he intends to publish early in July next. Works of a similar character to the one referred to are now published by leading business houses in a majority of the Eastern States and The New England Business Directory, recently published in Boston is one of the most successful and interesting ever issued in the United States. It is believed that "The Pacific Coast Business Directory" can be made an important vehicle for the dissemination of valuable information connected with the business facilities of the Pacific Coast, and that by the addition of a thorough and reliable abstract of the resources of the Coast, the work will be of permanent value to every man of business and a reliable business guide invaluable to the people of the entire Union. The information for the work will be collected from official or other reliable resources by competent agents, who will visit every section of the territory mentioned in the prospectus, and carefully prepared statistical tables—similar to those contained in the State Register"—will be included, to make the work attractive to the general reader. The work will contain the names, business, and address, of all merchants manufacturers, and professional men, in the States of California, Oregon, and Nevada, and the Territories of Washington, Idaho, and Montana. also, lists of the commercial, agricultural, manufacturing, mining, petroleum railroad telegraph, banking, and insurance companies, in the same and a vast amount of carefully prepared statistical information —Alta, 25th inst

A correspondent of the Tribune who has been traveling in the Southern States for some time past, says that nearly all those who fought against the Union are in favor of Andrew Johnson, and place him next to Lee and Wade Hampton.

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. These Bitters are universally acknowledged to be a sure preventive and cure for Fever and Ague, Biliousness, Heaviness of the Stomach or any other like affection. Their effect upon the system is most miraculous; they give a healthy tone to the whole system relieve all morbid matter and in fact thoroughly cleanse the system of all impurities. In no case has it been known to fail, but on the contrary, its virtues have been found in all the most inveterate cases where it has been used in connection with any of the ailments of the body the Bitters are offered as a speedy and certain cure. They make the weak strong the languid brilliant, and are unequaled as a general restorative. They are composed of the celebrated Calisaya bark, wintergreen, sassafras roots and herbs, all preserved in perfectly pure St Croix rum. For particulars, see circulars and testimonials around each bottle

Beware of imposition! Examine every bottle. See that it has our private U. S. Stamp unmutilated over the cork with plain blown name and no signature on a flint steel plate side label. See that the bottle is not refilled with spurious and adulterous stuff. Any person pretending to sell PLANTATION BITTERS by the gallon or in bulk is an impostor. Any person selling this bottle, or selling any other material therein, whether called Plantation Bitters or not, is a criminal under the U. S. Law, and will be prosecuted by us. We already have convicted several parties selling our Bitters &c., who will succeed in getting themselves into close quarters. The demand for Drake's Plantation Bitters from Ladies, clergymen, merchants &c. is unparalleled. The simple intelligible fact is that the evidence we present of their worth and superiority, they say, is from all respectable druggists grocers, physicians, hotels, saloons steamboats and country stores.

TRAITORS IN CONCLAVE.

Treasonable Organization in Linn Co.

READ! READ! READ!

The following letter divulging the plans and purposes of the treasonable organization which the Democrats maintained during the war in Linn county, is published in the Albany Journal of the 16th inst. The writer is well known throughout the State, and has a reputation for honesty and veracity.

ALBANY, May 16th, 1866.

It is with a feeling of duty that I owe to myself, my country and my God that I put these few facts before the public. I do so only in the hope of showing the cowardly Democratic party, and all of my former associates, how I have solemnly declared that I left the party because I became convinced by positive facts that its leaders were men who were willing to sell and surrender to the Government. They say this is not so. I say that I know it to be so. I have kept this to myself for my knowledge to myself but I can keep it no longer, and though it is a heavy task I feel it to be my duty to let the world know the facts. I shall state the whole truth, and nothing but the truth. I have candidates upon whom you have voted for State offices, and whom you have elected, for whom I have voted. I have been one of their warmest friends. I have labored during the Rebellion to elect them to office in this town. I was foolish enough to be deceived into that meeting by men who should have been and friends of our Government. But I was sadly deceived. They have now brought out who candidates for the legislature one of their officers who has been carrying on a plan and plot against the Government—A. H. Reed—an officer in the rebel army, who deserted. Other leading Democrats were there officiating. I cannot say certain what name the organization went by but I believe what the object of said organization. I will here say that I do not feel bound by any oath that may have been given when that oath would bind me to hold my peace and help to elect them to any office; and I have resolved well this matter I was to destroy our country if I ever. They did there in short time to resist the draft, and if I the old be drafted to take their friends of the rebel army know that I was their friend so that I need not fear them or obey me. To make me feel safe and believe that the South could never be whipped they said that the Northern cattle were conquered and all gone when the Southern army went home. They cited me to some battles where whole regiments of federal soldiers had been taken prisoners by a few rebels, and said it was done by the Northern men giving the rebels a secret sign, which they showed me how to give. I have said the object of this organization was to destroy our country. Is it not true? when there was no man who now professes to love their country were, sitting like wasps, here in Albany, holding secret meetings to learn men how to betray their country. What hypocrisy! I cannot be silent and see such men come into power. I may make enemies, but I will do my duty. Now as to the signs; I do not know that I need try to give them all, as I was never instructed in giving them but once. Suffice for the present, to say that they have signs by which they recognize each other. They drop pieces of paper upon which are written certain characters on the side walk and other public places, to give an alarm and be ready for any emergency. When in the army they are to bite off their cartridges, let the ball fall to the ground, and give their comrad a certain flourish, then ram down their powder without the ball, then hold the ball across the left wrist so that their friends may know who they are. When I say their friends I mean the rebel army, for loyal men would not understand their signs. Such are the men who are running for office on the Democratic ticket, professing love for their country. Oh! what love. I make the statements in full view of the responsibility I incur, believing that some honest Democrats will see with whom they are associating, and for whom they are about to cast their votes. For further particulars call on me in Albany. S. B. MARKHAM.

Mr Nubby Pleads the Cause of a Friend.

CONFEDERATE X ROADS,
(which is in the State of Kentucky),
March, 10, 1866.

Yesterday I happened to pick up a copy uv a fritefully depraved Ablishin paper, and my hor ror stricken eyes was glued to the follerin passage, which I read:

"I am happy to state to you that our free negroes are doing finely. We have no trouble with them. They have all gone to work manfully. They give as impetus to trade that we never before had. I have sold John Guttle's negroes this year and last more goods than I ever sold Guttle, and he owned two hundred and fifty slaves: so you see the free negro system is working well with us."

As I peroozed them lines tears started involuntarily from my beamin eyes, and coursed in torrents down my venerable cheeks. I know John Guttle well, I may say intimitly. He was a dear friend, one uv the few which I call friend in the most catholic and comprehensive sense uv the word. He holds my note for eighteen dollars and 63 cents, and I hev somewhere among my papers, which I hev allus carefully preserved for reference, a memorandum uv his address, that I might be shore not to forget to send it to him. I give him the note becoz he furnisht the paper, and it made him easy in his mind. I put down the memorandum becoz it looked business-like Benevolence is a prominent trait in my character—when given my note for borrered money will do a man good. I never begrudge the trouble or writin it.

But what I war agoin to say was, that the feendishnis uv that item passes belief. The writer put it in print to show that the abolishin uv slavery benefitted somebody. I grant him that the merchant, who undoubtedly was born in Massachusetts, was benefitted by the change, so are the gravy mechanics who are now polluting the soil uv Alabama, and so probably are the 250 niggers, but in the name uv liberty, in the name uv justice, in the name uv the Constooshun uv the United States, and the flag uv our common country, I ask how about John Guttle?

John Guttle is robbed—John Guttle is deprived uv his property; the bread is taken from John Guttle's mouth, his staffin broken, his dependence is gone; he is bereft.

Never shall I forget John Guttle or his hospitable mansion as I knowed it in the happy years afore the orful war. He was a gentleman uv the old skool—wun uv the few left us in these degenerate days. His home was wun uv unalloyed happiness. Situated just back uv Mobeel, he had the finest plantashun in that section, and hild on it two hundred and fifty niggers. All shades was represented. There was the coal black Caffee, whose feechers denoted the pure Afrikin, and whose awkward manners showed that he was not long from Afrika. There was the civilised mulatto, in whose veins the Guttle blood showed; the quadroon, in whom the good old Guttle blood predominated; and the octaroon, which was mostly Guttle. The Guttleses was eminently a Christian generation—they was devoutly pious, and there never was wun uv the name but who owed repent without the book all uv the texts bearin on slavery. The passages in which Onesimus and Hagar Sigger was favorites with 'em, but on "cussid be Canaan" they was strong. For generations they had mourned over the hard fate uv the sons uv Ham, doomed to perpetooal bondage, becoz uv the sin uv their father, and with a missionary spirit okaled by few and excelled by none, they did their part toward redoobin that curs by makin as many uv em as possible half-brothers to the more favored race of Japheth, and thus bringing uv em out uv the curse, and they had mallered the color uv their charges down from the hideous black to a ortic yeller.

Now all is changed. A shaddor hez fallen across that peaceful home. The nigger quarter is there, but the niggers is not. The broad plantashun is divided up into small farms, and half uv it is owned by abolishnists from the North, who work themselves, and who hev a mestin house on one corner uv it, and the niggers a skool house on tother. The race track is plowed up and in cotton—the whippin post, and the stocks is taken down and burned—all, all the evidences uv civil ivashun hez faded afore the ruthless hand of the invader. John Guttle, that generous old man, subsists by the labor uv his own hands—one uv his sons okes out a miserable existence runnin a dray in Mobeel; another, who is gifted with no ordinary intellect, earns a respectable livin playin seven-up in a small way with his former niggers, and the two girls is runnin a sowin mashcon.

Another great wrong is done in this settin free of John Guttle's niggers. John Guttle hez, uv course, no further interest in the Dimocratic party. Slavery was the prohibitike chord which nutted the Southern slaveholder and the Northern Dimocrat, and that chord out, why hez John Guttle any more in Dimocracy? We stood as a Chinese wall between them and the rushin flood of Abolishun fanatisism, and we made the wall bisness pay. They furnished money and we did the work, and there bein but few uv us, the orfices was easily divided. Alas, our okkupashun's gone. The South is forever lost to us, for she has no dirty work for us to do.

I appeal to the United States uv America.

In behalf of John Guttle I say give him back his niggers.

In behalf of the Dimocracy North, who are out uv employment, give him back his niggers.

In behalf of his son, who is runnin a dray, give him back his niggers.

In behalf of the daughter, runnin a sowing-machine, give him back his niggers.

Make things normal again. Like John the Baptist the Government shall hear the voice of one howlin in the wilderness until all these is done.

PETROLEUM V. NASBY.

The New York Tribune of April 14th, says: "We do protest mildly but firmly against the scheme now pending the rebel press of entirely destroying Congress abolishing the judiciary, reducing the army and placing us under the rule of Andrew Johnson. We do not make this protest in any spirit of dislike to Johnson. If we are to be governed by a man perhaps he will be as kind to us as any person is. All we have to say is, let us have work and food."

Let Johnson be President. Make A. J. President. He will work improve on President and make him do it all. Why all this red tape and fuss about Congress and Courts? We are becoming disgusted with this scheme that unless we change the subject and close our article we shall find ourselves going as far as the veriest Copperhead—in favor of A. J. crushing Congress out of the capitol and decorating the green sward around the White House with the mangled bodies of Sumner, Phillips and Stevens. How comfortable it would be to rest forever in Andrew's gentle bosom, with no care, no elections, no taxes, nothing to vex us.

WAST OF TARIFF PROTECTION.—Nearly all the cotton and woolen mills at Frankford near Philadelphia have suspended operations awaiting the action of Congress on the tariff and internal revenue bill.

[In making up our paper of Saturday, the latter part of the following dispatch was accidentally omitted. Every printer knows how such mistakes are liable to occur. We re produce the dispatch in full.]

Report on the Freedmen's Bureau.

CINCINNATI, May 16th.—Generals Steedman and Fullerton appointed April 7th to inspect and report on the Freedmen's Bureau in the South as States, have completed a tour of Virginia and North Carolina, and report to the Secretary of War in a letter dated May 8th, giving their impressions at length and closing with the recommendation that the several agents in Virginia and North Carolina be dispensed with, and that their duties be performed by the officers commanding the troops in the Districts. They say that they are well satisfied with the conduct of the Bureau officers and Freedmen, and that the Bureau in these States is and that no other service could now be rendered by the Commissioner of any number of the agents, without the continuance of their services. In conclusion they say the affairs of the Bureau have been carried on by agents of a humane and benevolent character, and the agents are generally commended by good judgment there has been no case of conflict between the agents and citizens. Many of the agents are acting in harmony with the civil officers of the States are necessary and supported by the citizens in the performance of their duties, but in many places where agents are not harmonious and appetite is very bad feeling exists. This feeling is due to the arbitrary measures and assumptions of authority of agents in advance of their instructions. Where agents are over the widest latitude over in their functions and the effect is shared in bitterness and hate, mainly between whites and the freedmen and against the Government by planters and expectations on the part of the freedmen that can never be realized. They report that Indications for a crop all in the Bureau Districts are encouraging.

The report says opposition has been met on the south bank of Trent river in a settlement with exclusively colored population, and in many places in counties in the interior. These Districts are largely settled by refugees. These industrious people came in a few years and were then living in small huts built by themselves from lumber manufactured by their own hands. The settlement was recently scourged by small pox and their condition is well calculated to excite sympathy for their helpless state. The disease among them are supplied by Government, while the condition in contiguous districts is deplorable. Those who are suffering in small huts, etc. The Hon. Mr. Fitz, formerly an army chaplain, presides over this colony as the Assistant Superintendent of the Bureau. This Agent has exercised the most arbitrary and despotic power and practiced cruelty and outrage of cruelties. We found that he had in two instances suspended freedmen with cords around their wrists, but not touching the floor, and kept them in this position in one case two, and in the other case four hours. That he sentenced a freedmen to imprisonment for three months for the trivial offense of wrangling with his wife, and kept another man arrested and sent in prison for months, while his wife and children were taken to object to attention and died with the small-pox. That he took him from prison under guard and compelled him to bury his children in the cradle in which they died. In one instance he imprisoned six children ten years old for playing in the streets on the sabbath. He imposed a fine of sixty dollars on an aged freedman for having told on other Freedmen that he was about to be arrested by Gen. This poor old man not having the money to pay the fine, was imprisoned till the next day, when his son paid the fine, with three dollars additional jail fees. A fine was imposed, which Superintendent Fitz says goes to the support of the bureau, and is imposed on owners of each hut, or ground rent. If occupants fail to pay the tax promptly, they are also turned into the streets or imprisoned, while some instances the huts were torn down. All business transactions by these people are taxed five dollars per month, upon every little shop, five on each fishing boat, and five on each horse and cart. If the Freedman do not pay these taxes when due it at once subjects the property to confiscation. We are unable to ascertain what amount of funds have been collected by Superintendent Fitz, or what disposition had been made of it. In answer to the question, what justification there has been for the oppressive burdens he had imposed upon these people, Supt Fitz replied that, Capt Scully said I must have $1,000 a month for that settlement. He furnished a showing or statement, which is herewith forwarded, by which he set to prove to defend his conduct by stating that he acted in obedience to the orders of his superior officers in the Freedmen's Bureau.

Hon Horace James, formerly Captain, and of late acting Commissioner of the Freedmen's Bureau, is now operating a plantation in Granville county, N. C. in which Colonel Whittlesey, the President of the Commission, is interested.

A freedman accused of stealing from Whittlesey & James' store was tried by James and condemned to dig ditches on the plantation. He ran away, was pursued and shot, and Col Whittlesey shut off all investigation. Capt Graves, Superintendent of the Goldsboro Bureau is collecting one farm on government land two on his own account. He keeps no books or even memorandum of moneys received or expended, pays the laborers in clothing received as donations from the North and he has sold a large amount of such clothing for cash. Major Swan, financial agent of the bureau at Wilmington, cultivates a nice plantation, employing 80 hands. He says he engaged in this business to convince the southern people that the negro would work. Major Wickersham, sub-agent at Wilmington has one fourth of the profits of a large nice plantation, for compelling the negroes to work. He explained the manner in which he compelled the freedmen to comply with their contracts, by stating he put them to work with a ball and chain on the streets of Wilmington. General Steedman and Fullerton are now examining affairs in South Carolina.

THE MACKINAW EXPEDITION DOWN THE YELLOWSTONE.—The Montana Post of April 27th says:

The following particulars of the Mackinaw expedition down the Yellowstone river has been furnished to us by Frank Godfrey, who has just returned to this city. We consider that a very heavy responsibility rests upon those who exposed a number of their fellow creatures to such deadly peril, without taking any precaution to secure their safe transport.

It appears that fifteen men, two women and six children left this city on the 28th of March travelling with ox teams to the Yellowstone, for the purpose of taking passage to the States in Mackinaw boats, said to have been built expressly for the navigation of the river by one D. L. Bowen. The commencement of the journey was anything but auspicious, for the passengers had to walk most of the way. On the 9th of April the party reached the place where the Mackinaws should have been but found only one miserable flat-boat afloat and two others sunk. Six of the men started down the river in a skiff. The remainder set to work repairing and putting to order the flat and a Mackinaw lying near at hand.

The party in the skiff went down about two hundred and twenty five miles, when, at a point in the river where the channel runs close to the bank, they came upon an encampment of Indians. The savages had hoisted a red flag, and called upon them to stop; but as the demand was not complied with, they opened fire upon them and one of their number (named Augustus Lawrence, from Connecticut, who leaves a wife and children in the States to mourn his untimely fate) was shot dead. The survivors made for the opposite bank, and abandoning their frail boat, ran for their lives up the river. Taking to the hills they successfully struck the Yellowstone, and soon came in sight of the batteau and Mackinaw boat carrying the rest of the passengers, at the same moment. They of course hailed them and told their story. Upon hearing which, the party, after deliberating awhile, came to the conclusion that their only prudent course was to return. Lawrence volunteered to strike across the country and procure assistance from the people of Gallatin, while the whole party traveled up the Yellowstone valley without any other means of transportation for their personal property than their own backs. During the absence of the messenger, the women of the party exhibited astonishing fortitude and endurance, wading the Yellowstone four times and remaining on the smallest face. When Lawrence returned in company with J. C. Hughes, John Marshall, W. H. Heffner, C. C. Miller, Benjamin Collelton, E. A. Ames and W. B. May, and bringing some provisions and ammunition, they found the women and weary travelers had eaten their last meal. They were taken to the last mentioned place, where they now are. The thanks of the community are justly due to the above named gentlemen for their laudable exertions for their rescue and relief. The passengers requested D. L. Bowen to refund half of the passage money which he refused to do (and of those being plenty of water, as represented the Yellowstone is low and the country is swarming with Indians. Steamboats only would be safe from attack.

THE GEE TRIAL.—Washington, April 14th.—The evidence for the prosecution in the Gee trial has not closed at Raleigh. Wm P. Davis, of Connecticut, was the last and most important witness, his position as Superintendent of the hospital enabling him to give a great deal of information and witness a greater number of incidents than any other prisoner. These he narrated in such clear and detailed manner as to create a marked impression upon the Court. His statement corroborated nearly every fact of importance yet developed in the trial. He told of the shooting and killing, at various times, of eight Union soldiers by the guards, one of them mortally, under the following circumstances. A chimney had fallen in one of the buildings and buried several of the prisoners. A crowd had gathered around the doors, which Gee ordered the guard to disperse, and, if need be, fire upon it. At this time the soldier deposed. Soon after, two sick men were walking in the direction of the door but at a distance from it, when Gee walked up to the two sentinels and spoke to them whereupon they deliberately shot the men one of whom afterward died. Davis also testified to a crazy soldier being found shot one morning near the dead line he having wandered out during the night.

The testimony regarding men coming maimed from hunger was of the most heartrending character. The testimony was positive in regard to the failure of the Commissariat at the court I of the prison authorities to make the prisoners comfortable.

The day the peace proclamation reached Raleigh Gee caused asked for his discharge by virtue of that proclamation but the Court said that it did not relieve the prisoners. Judge Jordan of this State Court, then granted a writ of habeas corpus to which General Rogers will reply that the prisoner is in the hands of the military authority and cannot be reached by such a writ. The summing up of the evidence against Gee made a fine connected showing of certain.

FUNERAL OBSEQUIES OF D. S. DICKINSON.—BINGHAMTON (N. Y.) April 15.—The closing obsequies of Daniel S. Dickinson were held here this afternoon. The distinguished Statesman was buried in accordance with the rules of the Episcopal Church. The funeral took place from his late residence in this village, known as "Spring Grove." and was witnessed by upwards of 6,000 people. The funeral train, which was composed of many distinguished and prominent gentlemen from all sections of the country, members of the Binghamton bar, the village authorities, the Masonic fraternity and the friends. Special trains were run on the Erie road for the accommodation of relatives and friends of the deceased. The body of the lamented dead was deposited in temporary tomb in the cemetery on the outskirts of the village, known as "Spring Grove."

BINGHAMTON, April 14.—The remains of the late D. S. Dickinson arrived here to-day. A committee of citizens met the funeral party at Susquehanna and accompanied it to Binghamton. The train was draped in mourning and upon its arrival in perfect silence. The assembled thousands uncovered their heads as it approached, in veneration of the departed statesman. All business was suspended in the public buildings, and private dwellings were draped in mourning. The funeral will take place to-morrow at three P. M.

THE DEAD OF THE WAR.—The Provost Marshal General has completed a careful compilation, from the muster rolls, of all the deaths in battle, from wounds and from disease, in every regiment and organization of every loyal State, from the beginning to the close of the war. From it it appears that 250,739 officers and men have lost their lives in the service. Of this number, 5,221 commissioned officers and 182,429 enlisted men have died of disease or, in a few cases, from accident.

THE "WHISKEY" RESOLUTION.—The House of Representatives on the 12th of April proudly took up the Executive resolution prohibiting the sale of liquor in the Capitol and passed it with an amendment prohibiting the sale of liquor in all rooms in any of the public buildings in the grounds of the Capitol and the avenues. The amendment is as follows:

Public Building to such use.

The question being taken on the resolution as amended, it was carried.

Mr. Stevens inquired, with an affectation of gravity, whether this was such a resolution as would require the signature of the President. [Laughter.]

Mr. Ashworth replied that it was not, and he called for a reading of the 24th rule of the House. It provides that no spirituous liquors shall be offered for sale within the Capitol or public buildings without the consent of the rule. The said, was adopted in 1837, and had been supposed by the presiding officer of the House all the time. [Laughter.] He had frequently been in the Senate and wondered that the presiding officer of that body had not enforced that rule. It seemed that it would be better if that body had the presiding officer and some of the members of this body. [Laughter.] He moved to amend the concurrent resolution by making it apply also to all the public buildings and grounds in the city of Washington.

Mr. Schenck said he noticed that the term "exhibition" was used in the rule, and wished to know in what sense it was employed.

Mr. Stevens suggested that it meant the exhibition of matters with liquor in them. [Laughter.]

Mr. Wentworth said he so understood it.

After some further discussion, Mr. Wentworth's amendment was agreed to, and the concurrent resolution as amended, was adopted.

HOW NATURAL, AND YET HOW AGREEABLE it is to employ the comforts of a good bed to rest the weary limbs upon, and I can say from experience that there is no style of bed that compares with the MOULTON SPRING BED BOTTOM BROMLEY'S PATENT, for Health and Comfort Durability and Cheapness can be attached to any bedstead and do not get out of order. The most of this bed is between the series of SPRINGS PHOTOGRAPH GALLERY and others when for all that may wish to purchase. Also the first size bed in working order can be seen and had on short notice at Mr. Wilkins Furniture Store on Front street near the bridge. Price—Double-Bed, $10, Single Bed $7.

Mr. Brooks will take by his New Invention Bed from factory for $9.00 per dozen. Will be at his Rooms from 9 A. M. to 1 P. M. myd1m
